

Imprimis Pharmaceuticals Appoints Dr. Richard L. Lindstrom to its Board of Directors

January 5, 2015

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 5, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Imprimis Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (NASDAQ: IMMY), a pharmaceutical company focused on the development and commercialization of proprietary compounded drug therapies, today announced the appointment of internationally-renowned ophthalmologist, Richard L. Lindstrom, M.D., to the company's Board of Directors.

Dr. Lindstrom is a board-certified ophthalmologist and internationally recognized leader in corneal, cataract, refractive and laser surgery. He has been at the forefront of ophthalmology's evolutionary changes throughout his career as a recognized researcher, teacher, inventor, writer, lecturer and highly acclaimed physician and surgeon. Dr. Lindstrom is founder and an attending surgeon of Minnesota Eye Consultants, Adjunct Clinical Professor Emeritus at the University of Minnesota Department of Ophthalmology, and visiting professor at the U.C. Irvine Gavin Herbert Eye Institute. He serves as an advisor to numerous companies throughout the world. He also holds over 35 patents in ophthalmology and has developed a number of solutions, intraocular lenses and instruments that are used in clinical practices globally. He has co-edited seven books, and published over 350 peer reviewed journal articles and 60 book chapters. Dr. Lindstrom serves on a number of journal editorial boards, including the Journal of Cataract and Refractive Surgery (JCRS) and Journal of Refractive Surgery (JRS), and is the Global Editor-in-Chief of Ocular Surgery News (OSN). He is Honorary Editor-in-Chief of the U.S./Chinese Journal of Ophthalmology. He serves on many company boards and is an esteemed member of many associations, including serving on the board of International Society of Refractive Surgery (ISRS) of the American Academy of Ophthalmology (AAO).

"We are privileged to welcome Dr. Lindstrom to Imprimis' Board of Directors – the list of his accomplishments is truly astounding," stated Mark L. Baum, CEO of Imprimis. "Dr. Lindstrom is a pioneer and highly-respected thought leader in the ophthalmology community and we look forward to his insights and contributions as we prepare for an exciting 2015 and beyond. His extensive clinical and leadership expertise will be invaluable as we continue to advance the commercialization of our ophthalmology and urology drug therapies."

Dr. Lindstrom stated, "I look forward to the opportunity to work with the Imprimis Board of Directors and management team in their commitment to deliver innovative medicines to physicians and patients at accessible prices. I have been impressed with the Company's accomplishments to date and as a current prescriber of Imprimis' Dropless Therapy, I can attest to its many benefits to patients and physicians alike."

Dr. Lindstrom is past President of the American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgeons (ASCRS), the International Society of Refractive Surgery, the International Intraocular Implant Society and the International Refractive Surgery Club. Dr. Lindstrom serves on the ASCRS Executive Committee and is the Chair of the ASCRS Foundation. He is a Board member of the University of Minnesota Foundation, chairing the Ophthalmology and Visual Neurosciences Division.

Imprimis also announced that Gus Bassani has resigned his seat on the Imprimis Board of Directors. "On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to thank Gus for his valuable insights, leadership and many contributions as we advanced Imprimis from a research and development organization to a commercial-stage company," stated Robert J. Kammer, Imprimis' Chairman of the Board.
